Fulufjellet National Park - dispensation for wildlife guiding

We refer to your application of March 18. regarding permission to arrange a wildlife guiding in Fulufjellet National Park in summer 2017. The management body of the national park, Nasjonalparkstyret for Fulufjellet, has handled your application by use of e-mail to the members. The decision was following:

Nasjonalparkstyret for Fulufjellet grant Tistel Wildlife Guiding v/Dane Stewart dispensation from the protection regulations of Fulufjellet National Park, § 3 5.2, to arrange an organised guiding in summer 2017 in order to observe wildlife. The following conditions are associated to the dispensation:

- The dispensation has been made valid in the period June 26. to July 2. 2017.
- The guiding shall be carried out without disturbing the wildlife unnecessarily.
- Use of motorised vehicles is not allowed.
- Litter must be taken home.
- Within September 1. Nasjonalparkstyret for Fulufjellet shall be shortly informed what part of the national park that was visited and what species observed.

This decision is made pursuant to the protection regulations of Fulufjellet National Park, § 3 5.2. It can be appealed in accordance with the Public Administration Act § 28. Appeals must be submitted within 3 weeks after receiving this letter. Any appeal against the decision shall be adressed to Miljødirektoratet, but sent via Nasjonalparkstyret for Fulufjellet.

Med hilsen

Ragnar Ødegaard
fung. nasjonalparkforvalter
